Sungai Long Golf & Country Club in Kajang played host to the annual PAM Golf 2013 (Pertubuhan Aritek Malaysia–Malaysia Institute of Architects). Guest of honour for the gathering and participating in the various activities scheduled for the day was none other than PAM Honorary Member and Deputy Prime Minister, YAB Tan Sri Dato' Muhyiddin bin Hj. Mohd Yassin.

The first PAM Golf tournament was held on 15th June 1968, during the Presidency of the late Dato' Ikmal Hisham Albakri, making it one of the oldest among the allied professions in Malaysia.

The aim of PAM Golf is to encourage participation and fellowship among members of the building industry, allied professions and government bodies. Golf is also a great way to enhance personal and professional endeavours as well as provide an opportunity to give back to the community as part of Corporate Social Responsibilities (CSR) initiatives.

PAM and Presenting Partner Akzo Nobel Paints Malaysia (Dulux) took the opportunity through PAM Golf 2013 to each contribute RM5,000 towards a children's charity nominated by the Overall Gross Winner.

Yayasan Sunbeams Home in Kuala Lumpur was named as the recipient of the RM10,000 windfall and the mock cheque was presented by Deputy Prime Minister, YAB Tan Sri Dato' Muhyiddin bin Hj. Mohd Yassin.

The tournament winners were Saadon Mohd Yusof, Overall Gross Champion, Alvin Lim, Overall Nett Champion, Bernard Low Guan Bee, A Medal Winner and Hj Abdul Halim Suhor, B Medal Winner.

Another highlight of the event was the PAM Centre Donation Campaign. PAM, through its PAM Education Fund (PEF), purchased a 12,000sf plot of land with an existing four storey building at Jalan Tanduk, Bangsar, with the intention of developing it as the PAM Centre. A New PAM Centre Architectural Design Competition was conducted in a single stage and was open to all PAM Corporate Members. The design entries were evaluated based on design excellence, response to the site context and innovative and economical solutions for a sustainable design which could achieve a GBI rating of at least Silver or better.

The competition drew a rich variety of innovative and sustainable design proposals from PAM members and the jury unanimously awarded the First Prize to Ar Mohd Heikal bin Hasan from HMA & Associates. He was appointed as Architect for the project which was expected to start in October 2013 and be completed by end 2014.

Thank you to 15-year veteran presenting sponsor Akzo Nobel Paints (Malaysia) Sdn Bhd (Dulux), and supporting sponsors Inovar Contracts Sdn Bhd and Roca Malaysia Sdn Bhd.
